

VILLA JASSO

CHÂTEAU DE
BERNE

History of the House

At first glance, it's hard to imagine this beautiful house housing herds of cows, goats and sheep. Yet Maison Jasso was once a sheepfold. With this heritage so dear to Château de Berne, the name of the house was not chosen lightly, the word "Jasso" meaning sheepfold in Provençal.

With a little hindsight, it's easy to imagine the pool house as a shelter for hay and straw, or the main building as a sheepfold with its various compartments.

The house has been restored to create a friendly family home, with a facade reminiscent of the southern sun and a peaceful, green setting.
